PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Philip M. Alden, President

Our past year has been an eventful one with an unprecedented heavy volume of routine imposing unusual stress on both Board members and staff. Your Board has held 10 meetings and, although committee agenda have been occasionally too crowded for complete disposition, we believe the specifics warrant a sense of gratification.

We refrain from detailing the voluminous activity of each committee, but the following highlights of results amply demonstrate how much is owed to every member of the Board for their labors.

DISTRIBUTION

Our book distribution (sold and donated), totaling 32,408 volumes, reflects an increase of 14% overall, with an increase of 26% in sales and a decrease of 1% in donations; continuing the trend recorded in our 1974 report. The details of our sales record reveal a somewhat surprising switch in the categories of purchasers: a 67% increase in sales to retailers, colleges and libraries, and a 50% increase in over-the-counter sales; partially offset by a 61% drop in feedback from advertisements, reflected in a 62% decrease in individual mail orders. The spectacular 67% increase mentioned is in part due to a non-recurring special sale of 4,950 copies of Warren's Compendium purchased by the Southern Swedenborg Federation for free distribution to libraries, which we handled on their behalf.

Another part of the increase is attributable to what we refer to as 'exposure factors'; i.e. bringing the name of Swedenborg to the attention of a broader segment of the public indirectly. This cannot always be traced but it is reasonable to concede some credit to the columns distributed to news media through the Precis organization, and increasing references to Swedenborg in independent publications. We are pleased to record our sales of 581 copies of Dr. Van Dusen's The Presence of Other Worlds and 265 The Natural Depth in Man. In addition, the Pyramid Publications distributed, under our co-publication contract, 36,120 copies of My Religion by Helen Keller. The above does not include our distribution of pamphlets and brochures totaling some 8,000 items, half sold and half donated, representing a decrease of 3,500 (43%) compared with the preceding year.

PRINTING

This aspect of our operations also shows a record of an unprecedented activity; an increase from 5,823 volumes to 25,100, of which 6,900 represent our reprint of Warren's Compendium, largely to fill the Southern Swedenborg Federation order.

Production of other materials increased from 54,700 to 59,500 items: Newsletters, talking books for the blind, catalog, sales flyers, lungerich Fund self-mailer, etc. The paper work involved has contributed considerably to the heavier burdens imposed on our staff.

OTHER ACQUISITIONS

Our purchases from other publishers, to round out our inventory in response to heavier demand, increased from 7,236 to 9,601 items. We also acquired by donation from the Blackmer family 890 copies of the booklet, On Reading Swedenborg, by the late Carolyn Blackmer. We also received 200 copies each of Vol. VIII and Appendix of the new Latin edition of Arcana Coelestia from the Swedenborg Society in London in which we participated in funding.

DISTRIBUTION POLICY

It is important that our membership realize that, although their foundation may be fairly classified among publishers and distributors of religious literature, a distinction must be made between evangelical or missionary, and educational aims. It is true that a relatively small part of our promotional distribution is routed through evangelically oriented church missionary groups or individuals, but our relationship with these has to be limited to one normally existing between suppliers and purchasers. This foundation neither conducts any evangelical or missionary activities itself, nor does it advocate any religious doctrines as such, but operates on the thesis that the theology presented by Swedenborg's works reaches far beyond the christian world, and that no religious education—christian or nonchristian—can be considered well rounded without some knowledge of this theology.

We consider it no part of our functions to relieve evangelical groups of the responsibility of financing their own requirements, and the books they require for their own particular needs are only available from us through purchase. The books we donate to our authorized distributors are restricted to selected introductory titles solely for distribution, by purchase or donation, to interested individuals or students of religion in the mainstream of religious thought, not previously acquainted with these works.

FIELD DISTRIBUTION

The number of accredited distributors has grown to 99. On his return from his trip to Ghana last fall Dr. Synnestvedt submitted the names of some fifty additional seekers of accreditation as distributors in that country and organizational aspects for these volunteers are in the process of formulation.

WORK FOR THE BLIND

Miss Lillian Gish recording
Helen Keller's
My Religion
as a Talking Book

We sponsored the reading by Miss Lillian Gish of Helen Keller's My Religion as a talking book through the American Foundation for the Blind. A gift for work for the blind from the Chicago Society of the New Jerusalem made it possible for us to pursue this important project and to purchase a number of copies for distribution. One thousand sets were manufactured, 900 of which were ordered by the Library of Congress for free distribution throughout the United States to libraries for the blind and physically handicapped.

We have supplied a set of the talking book to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, who plan to reproduce it in cassette form.

GRANTS

(1) United States:

$700. to Dr. Synnestvedt and $300. to Mr. Dei Anang towards travel expenses of visit to Ghana to survey effects of our distribution there.
$850. Honorarium to Dr. Dole re: new translation of Heaven and Hell.
$605. Honorarium to Dr. Woofenden for editing translation of Swedenborg, Scientist and Seer by Ernst Benz and Toksvig's Appendices.

$1,400. Honorarium to Mr. Spiers for editing new Spanish translation of Heaven and Hell, and others.

$375. to Asela Kann for a Spanish translation of Marriage Ideals and Realization.

(2) India:

$350. to David Samuel of Madras, India for translation of Digest of True Christian Religion into Tamil and other Swedenborgiana in his magazine.

(3) Argentina:

$600. Honorarium to Mr. Habegger for assistance in editing translations and negotiating publication of Spanish editions.

(4) Japan:

$700. Honorarium to Rev. Yoshii Yanase
$700. Honorarium to Rev. Shiro Torita
$700. Honorarium to Rev. Yonezo Doi for their services in translating and publication of Japanese editions.

PROMOTION

Use of newspaper advertisements has been reduced due to the disappointing results. We have continued with our Precis "Keeping the Faith" columns which have been the most effective, a gratifying number of orders having been traced to this. Occasional radio spots have produced no traceable feed-back.

Our bi-annual NEWSLETTER continues to produce the most effective feedback in terms of both sales and public relations. Our mailing list has increased during the past year to 15,000 readers throughout the U.S., Canada, and other parts of the world.

We continue our listing in Bowker's Annual Publishers List which has wide circulation among book-dealers, and which has produced a significant number of enquiries

We have participated in book exhibits as follows:

Wash , D.C October, Joint Meeting—American Academy of Religion, Society for Biblical Studies and Society for the Scientific Study of Religion

Wash D C., December, Meeting of American Philosophical Association.

San Diego, Ca., March, Meeting of American Philosophical Association.

Chicago, Ill., April, Meeting of American Philosophical Association.

New Orleans, La , March, Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology.

Bombay, India, December, Publishers World Book Exhibit

Boston, Mass , October, Boston Globe Book Festival (Jointly with Massachusetts New Church Union).

Urbana College, Urbana, Oh., at General Convention, joint book exhibit with Swedenborg Press, Massachusetts New Church Union. We sponsored Wilson Van Dusen's visit to convention on occasion of his new book Presence of Other Worlds, which he autographed. Harper and Row reimbursed us with $176.00 for this exposure.

In commemoration of "Johnny Appleseed's" 200th anniversary we sent releases to 71 Feature Services.

LAW

The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court reversed the lower court's favorable decision that had ruled to restore our status as exempt from real estate tax. Our attorneys are carrying the matter to the Court of Appeals.

LEGACIES AND GIFTS

We have received two substantial legacies, one from the estate of Louise Dabney totaling $44,600., including a cooperative apartment valued at $10,000.; and secondly, that of the late Laurence Erench of California, netting $88,374

The total of other gifts received from members and friends amounted to $5,500.

INVESTMENTS

	Market Value	%	Book Value	%
U.S. Government Obligations	$121,590	10	$127,702	10
Corporate Bonds	$298,840	26	$401,567	32
Preferred & Common Stocks	$742,525	64	$731,547	58
March 31, 1975	$1,162,955		$1,260,816
March 31, 1974	$1,253,290		$1,225,062

BUILDING

Costs on all services have been rising, but our building has been well maintained; no major repairs have been required.

BUDGET FOR 1975/76

Having carefully reviewed our commitments and projects for the coming year the following recommended budget was approved by the Membership at the Annual Meeting:

Income	$169,912.
Expenditures	$196,310
Deficit	$ 26,398.

Despite our estimate of a considerable deficit for the 1974/75 fiscal year, we underspent our income by $18,500. due in part to the impossibility of completing our program for the period.

Pending projects include the eventual completion of Dr. Dole's new translation of Heaven and Hell, the editing of translations of Dr. Benz's book on Swedenborg, several titles in Spanish, Mrs. Block's Pictorial Biography, and others.

ADMINISTRATION

Due to the new guidelines of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, our auditors Touche Ross and Co. have submitted their report in a new form.

STAFF

Our full-time salaried staff has remained unchanged in the persons of our manager and accountant, the part-time personnel consisting of an editor-writer, typist, and shipping clerk. A measure of the heavy routine is illustrated by the fact that 9,700 packages were shipped during the year; an average of 40 per working day. The amount of work anteceding this apparently simple statistic involves purchasing, printing, editing, storing, accounting, etc., etc. It has become so overwhelming that we have decided to lease data processing equipment to assist in many routine operations.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Five new members and the decrease of two leaves our total membership standing at 325.

Board of Directors
Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated
New York, New York

We have examined the balance sheets of Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated (a New York nonprofit membership corporation) as of March 31, 1975, and the related statements of support, revenue, and expenses and changes in fund balances and of functional expenses for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Investments were confirmed to us by the custodian.

In our opinion, the aforementioned statements present fairly the financial position of Swedenborg Foundation, Incorporated at March 31, 1975, and the results of its operations and changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Certified Public Accountants

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS MARCH 31, 1975

1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the industry audit guide for voluntary health and welfare organizations published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Certain accounts have been reclassified from the prior year to conform with the audit guide.

b. Investments in preferred and common stocks are stated at cost. Investments in bonds and U.S. government obligations are carried at amortized cost with premiums amortized from dates of purchase to the respective maturity dates.

c. Inventories of books and printed sheets are valued at cost (average cost method).

d. All expenditures for land, building and equipment are capitalized. Depreciation of building and equipment is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets.

e. All unrestricted gifts and bequests have been designated by the board of directors for long-term investment. The board of directors has resolved that realized gain on investment transactions since April 1, 1954 be restricted for long-term investment, except for $270,427 designated for the purchase of land and building. At March 31, 1975, cumulative gifts and bequests and cumulative realized gain on investment transactions amounted to $1,005,017 and $305,916, respectively.

f. Policies concerning remainder interests in assets of certain estates are described in Note 3.

2 INVESTMENTS

Investments at March 31, 1975 are summarized as follows.

	Cost	Quoted market	Unrealized depreciation
Unrestricted current fund— investments for long-term purposes	$1,204,816	$1,112,037	$ 92,779
Endowment funds	66,000	60,917	5,083
	$1,270,816	$1,172,954	$ 97,862

The Foundation has three endowments which specify that the principal of $66,000 remain in a permanent investment fund with the income thereon used for current purposes.

3 REMAINDER INTERESTS IN ASSETS

a. The Foundation has a one-half interest in the residuary estate of John Hudson Chambers of $119,096 represented by assets held in Canada. The assets are being carried at quoted prices at December 31, 1926 (approximate market at March 31, 1975—$120,800). The assets are distributable under the terms of the Will after the death of certain life tenants. Fixed annuities are payable, if earned, to various beneficiaries during their lifetime from the income of the major portion of these assets, any excess of income being paid to the residuary legatees. The income from the remainder of the assets is shared by other life tenants (or their surviving widows). The residuary legatees share in the income to the same extent as enjoyed by the deceased life tenants during their lifetime.

b. The Foundation has a one-half interest in the residuary estate of John O. West. This estate is estimated to be valued at approximately $120,000. Under the terms of the Will, final distribution is to be made in June, 1975. The amount of the eventual distribution to the Foundation by the estate is not determinable at this date, therefore, this estate has been recorded at a nominal amount of $1 pending settlement.

c. The Foundation has a residuary interest in the estate of Mabel Swinney. The amount of the eventual distribution is not determinable at this time, therefore, this estate has been recorded at a nominal amount of $1 pending settlement.

d. The Foundation has received a specific bequest of $5,000 in the estate of Anne L. York. At the present time, it is not known if the estate has sufficient assets and, therefore, this estate has been recorded at a nominal amount of $1 pending settlement.

e. The Foundation has a remainder interest in the estate of Robert Braden. The remainder interest is estimated at approximately $10,000. Under the terms of the Will, final distribution is to be made on the death of the life tenant. The amount of the eventual distribution to the Foundation, by the estate, is not determinable at this time, therefore, this estate has been recorded at a nominal amount of $1 pending settlement.

f. Gifts and bequests for the current year include $133,033 received on the settlement of two estates.

SWEDENBORG FOUNDATION, INCORPORATED

4 LAND, BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

Land, building and equipment, at cost, are summarized as follows

Land		92,000
Building and improvements	$178,427
Equipment	16,719	195,146
Less accumulated depreciation		(49,774)
		$237,372

5 PENSION PLAN

The Foundation has a nonvested, noncontributory pension plan for regular employees. The charge to expense for the year ended March 31, 1975 was $20,000. The Foundation's policy is to fund pension costs determined by the board of directors. Funds accumulated to March 31, 1975 for this purpose of $61,216 (including interest of $8,616) are on deposit in savings accounts

6 ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Endowment funds include a $15,000 gift from two donors invested in a four-year, 8% savings certificate maturing August 21, 1977. The gift agreement provides that the Foundation hold the principal in trust and distribute the income to the donors during their lifetime. On the death of the donors, the restriction on the principal terminates. The donors have retained the right to withdraw all or part of the principal in the event of illness or emergency

7 TENANTS' SECURITY FUND

Tenants' security of $4,716 including interest is held in a savings account

8 FUNDS RESTRICTED FOR SPECIAL PURPOSES

The board of directors of the Foundation has designated that a maximum of $5,000 annually be segregated for special purposes from the current fund. At March 31, 1975, $10,370 has been accumulated for such purposes

9 CURRENT RESTRICTED FUND

Current funds of $35,277 at March 31, 1975 have been restricted by the donor for distribution of Arcana Coelestia, Vol. 1 to clergymen and theological students

10 REAL ESTATE TAX LITIGATION

During 1972, the City of New York rescinded the Foundation's real estate tax exemption as it applied to the nonleased portion of its building. The Foundation contends that its exemption should be reinstated. The Foundation has paid under protest real estate taxes of $13,753, of which $3,912 relates to the current year. The Foundation has brought an action against the City to refund the disputed amounts paid and to cause the City to grant an exemption from real estate taxes applicable to the nonleased portion of the building. Judgment in favor of the Foundation was rendered on January 31, 1974, however, the City has appealed the judgment and that appeal is presently pending, thereby staying its effect
